

CLAIMS

What is claimed is:

1. A system using an immobilization device wherein electrodes of the immobilization device are deployed into the target after impact of the immobilization device with the target.
2. A method for deploying electrodes of an immobilization device comprising detecting impact of the immobilization device and a provided target; and deploying electrodes.